MORRIS HARVEY COLLEGE ALMA MATER

In the shadow of the mountains
By Kanawha's river
Our beloved Alma Mater
Proudly stands forever.

Vines which cling to walls so stately
Cooper dome above thee
Winding stairways, leading upward
We will always love thee.

To the hours we spent in gleaning
Wisdom, knowledge, learning
To the days of toil and play our Thought will e'er be turning.

Morris Harvey, Morris Harvey
True we'll ever be.
Morris Harvey, Morris Harvey
Hail, all hail to thee.

Arriving for a year at Morris Harvey . . .

Some wait for house mother to issue room assignments . . .

While others enjoy "coffee time."

Upperclassmen register in the Reception Hall . . .

Meanwhile freshmen are counseled by Mrs. Cammack.

Anxious student body watch MH beat Marshall . . .

And for the first time in 22 years.

Some study in the library . . .

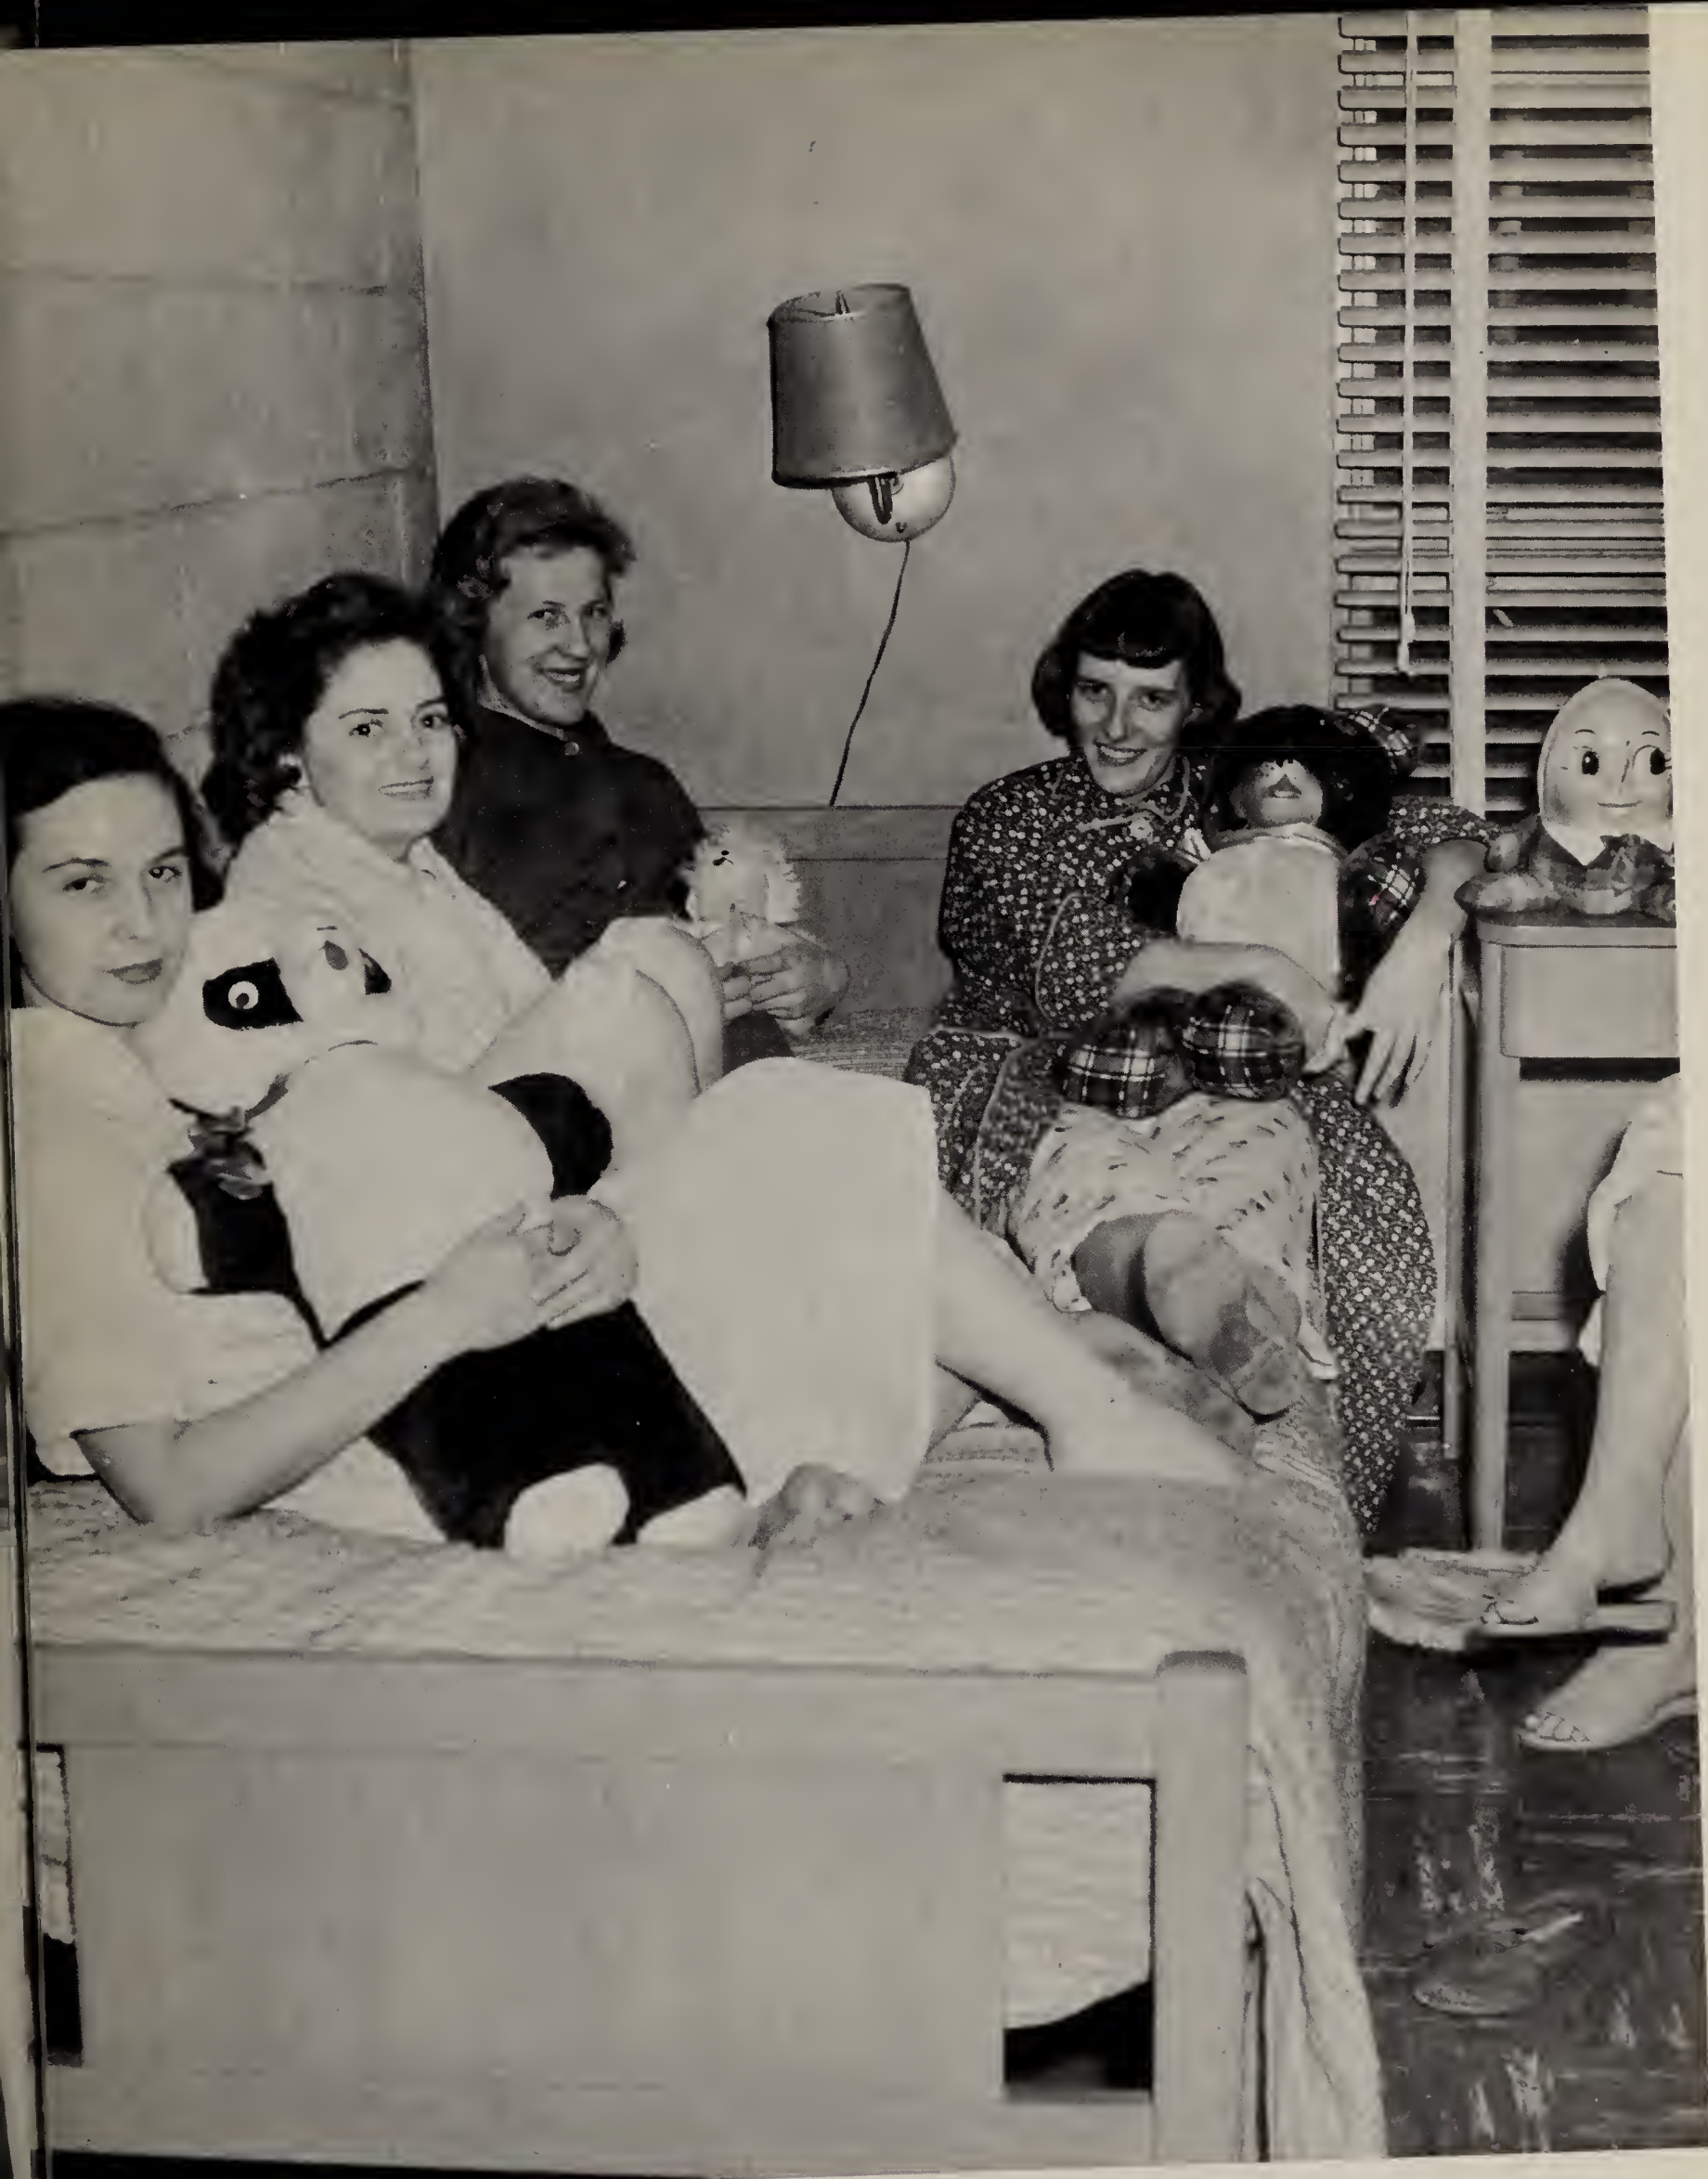

Others work in the lab.

A Halloween party was held in the dorm . . .

Followed by an informal session in Dot's room.

Officers greet rushees at tea . . .

Then decisions and pledges are made.

School fun lasts from September breezes to Autumn leaves . . .

To December winds, snow and the inevitable snow-ball battles.

Gary works with little gadgets . . .

Carolyn works with little girls .

We had our share of Queens . . .

But only the one King.

Christmas plans are made at the dorm . . .

January and semester exams await our return.

Spring is here and . . .

Fancies turn to thoughts of graduation.

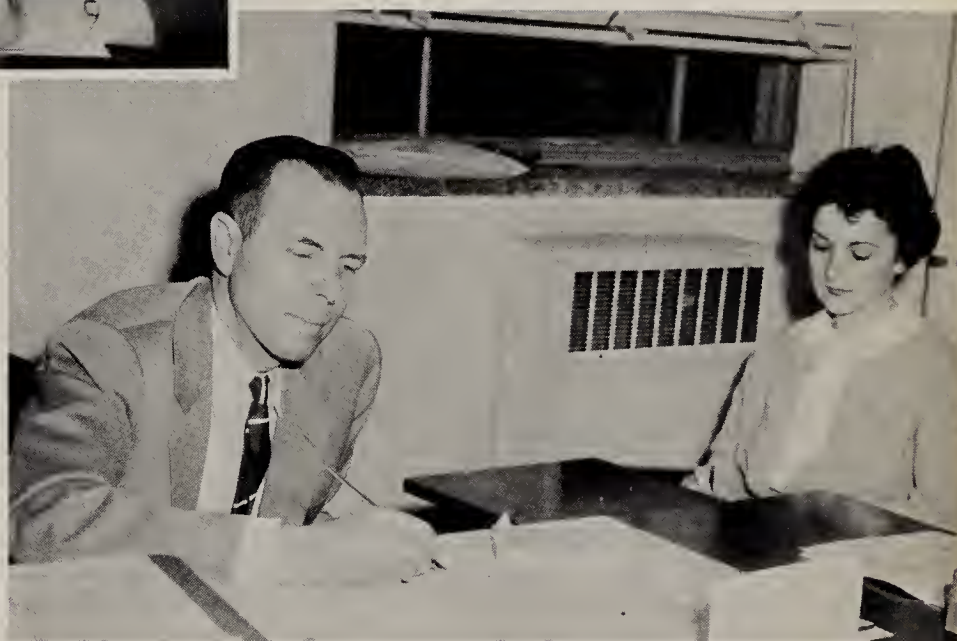

President Leonard Riggleman

Marshall Buckalew, Vice-President and Treasurer and Verna Lilly, Secretary.

Harry G. Straley, Dean of Faculty and Jo Ann Hardman, Secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Serving as the official connecting link between the student body and administration is the annually elected Student Council. The Council is made up of four officers and two representatives from each class who initiate and regulate most student activities.

Those fortunate enough to be a member of this governing board find themselves in a helpful position, both from their own and the college's viewpoint.

Traditional projects of the Council include the homecoming activities, Sadie Hawkins Day, May Day festivities and the publication of the Student Handbook and Student Directory. In addition, the group plans and supervises many post-game mixes and other social functions.

By its close contacts with the Panhellenic Council and other organizations, the Council contributes greatly to the solving of campus problems and at the same time discovers student reaction to pertinent questions.

Left to right: Flora Lee Hanger, secretary-treasurer; Gray Ferguson, sergeant-at-arms; Ray Holdren, president; and Bob Paskel, vice president.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Co-ordinating and regulating the activities of the nine Greek letter organizations on campus, the Pan-Hellenic Council is one of the two most important student governing bodies at Morris Harvey.

Each semester the Council, in joint action with the administration, formulates the rules and dates for rushing, bidding, and pledging. It also compiles lists of those students eligible for Greek membership.

This year Pan-Hell worked jointly with the Student Council in the homecoming activities and with the speech department when the latter held its third annual invitational forensic meet here in December.

Three Council officers and two representatives from each organization comprise the membership. Officers are elected during the latter part of the spring semester.

At the time the Harveyan went to press, the Council had begun a Greek Week for the local groups.

Panhellenic officers discuss a forthcoming project. Left to right: Archie Snedegar, vice president; George Park, president; and Mimi Mendel, secretary-treasurer.

WHO'S WHO

Harriet Wore and David Parker discuss his column which appears in the weekly school paper. Harriet is a junior; president of Sigma Iota Chi sorority; member of Wesley Fellowship and Choir. David is a senior; president of debate club; feature editor of The Comet; member of Blackfriars; Alpha Psi Omega; and Pi Kappa Delta. He earlier attended Emory University.

Robert "Bob" Poskel, studying in the library, solves a problem with a slide rule. He is a junior; vice president of Student Council; member of Independent Student Association; basketball team; and Chi Beta Phi scientific honorary. Attended Potomac State College.

Sally Reaser, practices those "ever-present" scales in Dr. Wolfe's studio. She is a junior; secretary-treasurer of the Tempo Club; member of the Music Educators National Conference; choir; and Methodist Student Movement.

Flora Lee Hanger and Ed Morris look over pictures to be used in the Harveyan and Comet. Flora Lee is Student Council secretary; co-editor of The Harveyan for this year and the previous one; secretary of the Sigma Iota Chi sorority; member of the choir; F.T.A.; W.A.A.; Blackfriars; Wesley Fellowship; Ushers Club; and Yoke Fellowship. She is a junior. Ed is a junior; editor-in-chief of The Comet for the current year and the previous one; secretary of Kappa Sigma Kappa; member of the Blackfriars and Harveyan staff.

Julia McCutcheon and John Sticklen look at a list of contributors to the college building fund. Luther Stover, senior standout for the Golden Eagles, adds two more to make his total against the Thundering Herd 34 points.

BASKETBALL

Morris Harvey's 1956-57 basketball record had all the appealing elements of a popular novel—a new coach, a mediocre team, and a startling victory over its bitterest rival to write a happy ending to the story. The latter event occurred, quite conveniently, the evening before the Harveyan went to press when the Eagles beat Marshall College, 82-79. This was the first such victory in 22 years.

The Eagles were decidedly a hot-and-cold team this year, playing sensational ball at times and sub-average at others. George King, in his first term as basketball coach, got his charges off to a good start as they beat a favored Toledo team, 73-62. They had no more than begun celebrating this feat when they in turn were downed by the Quantico Marines by a score of 80-68.

Next came a 93-67 win over Concord and a 81-69 loss to West Virginia Wesleyan. Glenville was trounced 89-78 by the Birds only to come back later and down the locals, 83-78. Other losses were to Anderson (89-68), Alderson-Broadbuddus (77-75), Marshall (99-75), Steubenville (78-66), Bethany (81-67), West Virginia Tech (100-91 and 105-58) and Potomac State (81-67).

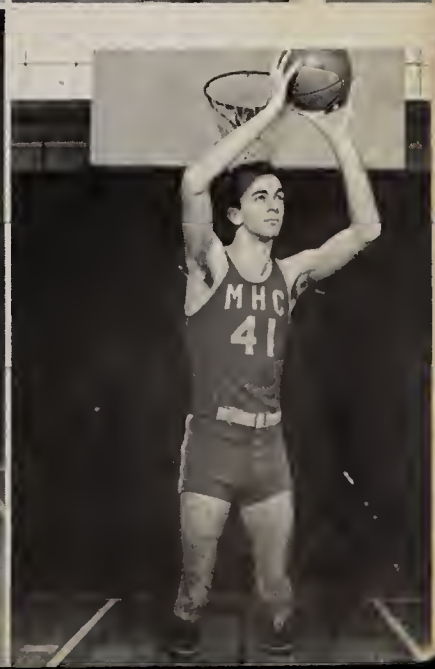

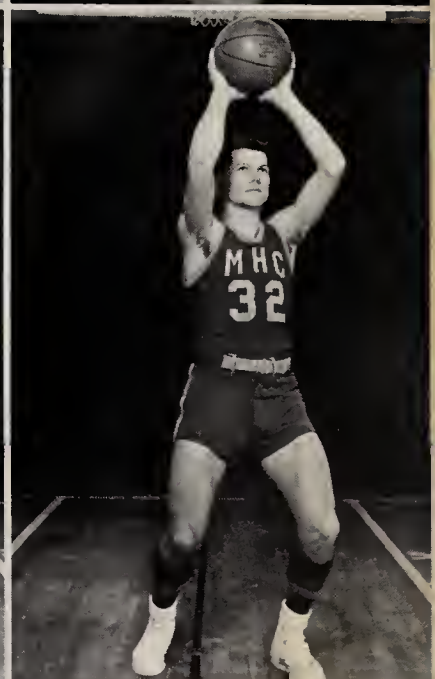

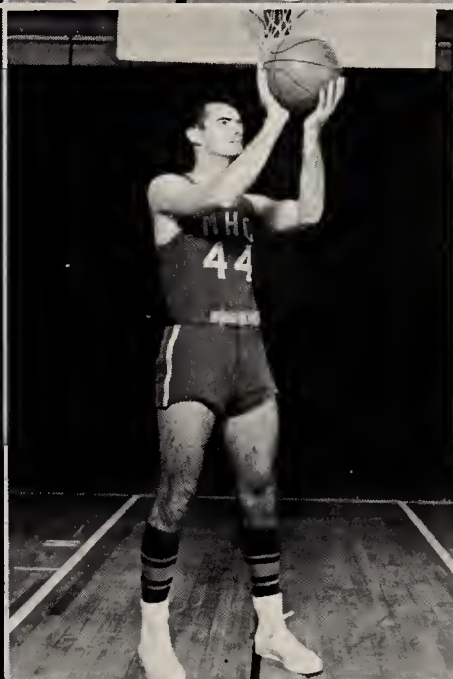

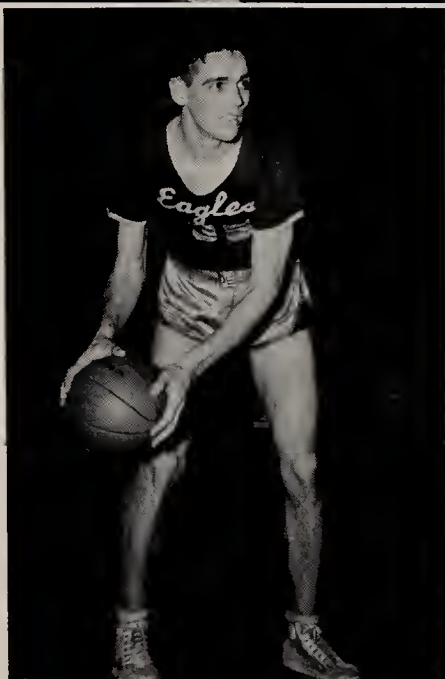

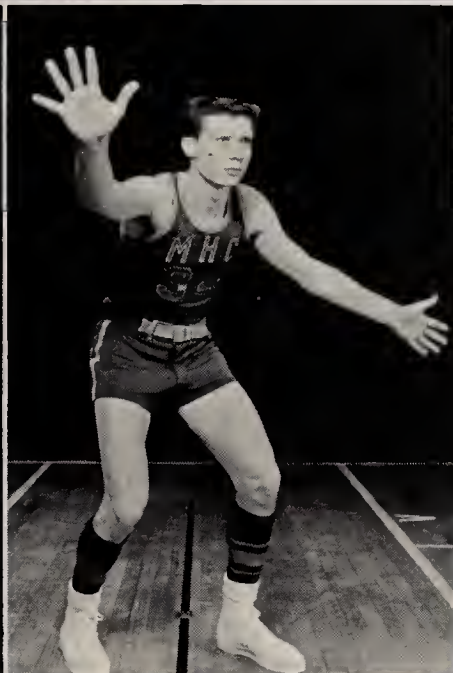

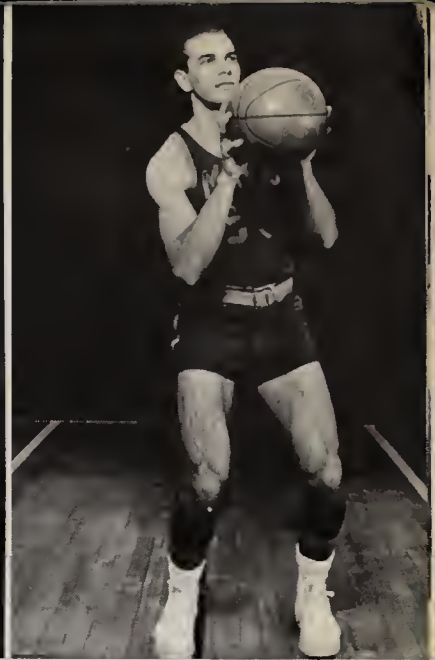

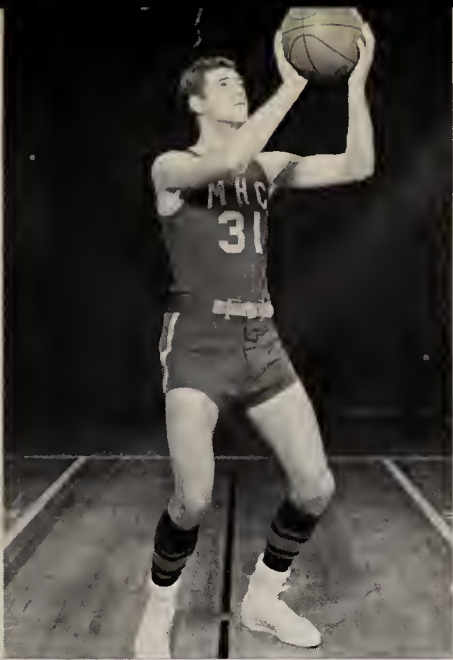

Wins came over Davis & Elkins (92-63 and 87-70), Concord (104-89), West Liberty (78-70), Wesleyan (97-79), Alderson-Broadbuddus (80-73), and Baldwin-Wallace (96-83). The final standings were: 11 won, 11 lost.

The big gun for Morris Harvey this year was senior forward Luther Stover.

FOOTBALL

The stands were a thunderous roar and banners rose high as the gun sounded ending the most amazing contest in the girdiron history of Morris Harvey. After being outplayed and outclassed for 57 minutes, the Golden Eagles finally combined the hard-running of Dickie Powers and Ray Jones along with the perfect ball-handling of Joe Cielensky to click off three fast touchdowns in as many minutes. Delos Fisher converted all three extra points, thus posting the eighth consecutive victory over the Golden Bears of West Virginia Tech.

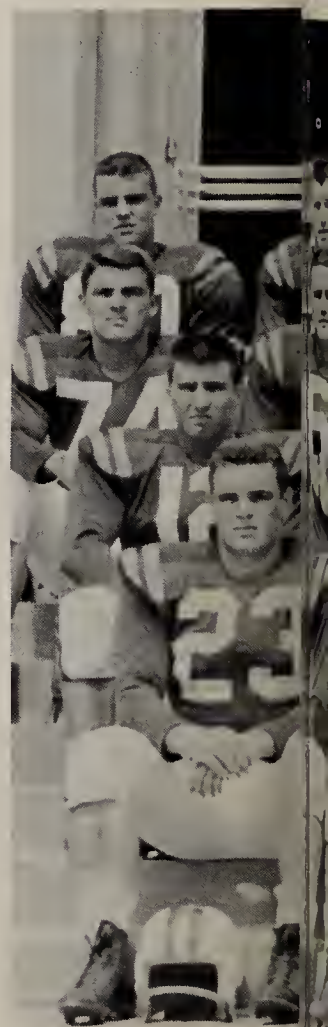

Morris Harvey scores its first touchdown of the season against Middle Tennessee and goes on to win 6-0.

Preceding this victory the Golden Eagles were keeping their record on an even keel by closing the door on Middle Tenn., 6-0, in the season's opener on a 44-yard run by freshman Dewey Ballangee. Next came the highlight of the season as far as the squad was concerned, the trip to the sunny peninsula, where Tampa shut the Eagles out 16-0.

Shortly after this loss was filed away in the mind of Coach Eddie King, the Eagles came face to face with the traditional foe and rival, Marshall's Big Green, and to save all the adjectives that may be used, the Thundering Herd topped the Eagles 25-13.

The Golden Eagles then trounced Eastern Carolina 28-0, but lost the homecoming game with Eastern Kentucky to the tune of 13-7. Weak Waynesburg concluded the Eagles' home schedule and left with a 49-0 bruising to the MH homestands on a successful note. The team then traveled to Baldwin-Wallace for their final game and at this time MH was still in contention for a possible bowl bid to the N.A.I.A. Alumni Bowl at Little Rock, Arkansas, however; the Yellow Jackets of Berea, Ohio, had other plans and so walloped the Gee-Birds 30-0, thus leaving the Eagles with a 5-4 record and ending another season of that greatest of all autumn sports.

ALPHA MU

Jack Lawhorn, Panhellenic president, presents the Alpha Mu's with all of the scholastic awards at the Annual Assembly.

Freda Harris, Alpha Mu secretary, is entertained during her morning coffee by dorm-mates Becky Frazier and Ethel Mahaffey.

Alpha Mu Sorority was organized at Morris Harvey College, October 14, 1925. Founded on the mythology of the Greek Muses, the goddesses of the arts and sciences, it was called Alpha Mu—"Sisters of the Muses."

Among the activities of this organization are the Christmas Dinner Dance, the Sweetheart Swing, the Spring Formal and the Fall Fashion Tea.

The women of Alpha Mu were accorded two honors by the Panhellenic Council for the 1955-56 school year. They were the Social Award and the Scholastic Award. The Individual Social Award was won by Mary Jo Wood. This organization also contributed their services to the Y.W.C.A. Volunteer Service Bureau.

Alpha Mu officers pose in their formals for the Harveyan photographer before attending one of their formal affairs. They are Katherine Stewart, pledge mistress; Virginia Canterbury, treasurer; Ann Park, president; Merewyn Davis, vice president; Freda Harris, secretary.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA

Showing a prospective pledge, Ray Goade, about Kappa Sigma Kappa are Jahn Carte, George Teel, Ray Haldren, George Spaulding.

Planning the first rush party of the season are Ernie Martin, Bill Halfinger, Ed Marris, Floyd Stephens.

Kappa Sig officers posing for the Harveyan photographer are Ed Morris, secretary; Chorlie McCollam, treasurer; Jim Rupert, chaplain; George Spoulding, Panhellenic representative. Seated is Ernie Mortin, president.

Now in its tenth year at Morris Harvey, the West Virginia Gamma Chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity was established here in 1947. It is the only national-international Greek organization on campus. There are 61 other chapters of the fraternity throughout the United States as well as in Canada, New Zealand, England and Australia.

Service to the college has always been a chief aim of Kappa Sigma Kappa. Currently the local group has among its active members the Student Council president, a co-editor of The Harveyan for the second year, vice president of the Panhellenic Council, drum major for the school band and editor of The Comet. Also active in intramural athletics, the fraternity is holder of the Greek basketball crown.

This organization plans at least one major dance each year although general attitude keeps most social functions intra-fraternity.

Pledge Richard Hill discovers here that even the best intentions do not always go according to plan as he nearly splashes his first "customers." Looking on is John Cottle. The customers are Liz Hole, Potty Wall, Lynn Hoffman.

PHI KAPPA KAPPA

Below is the Phi Kap entry in the annual homecoming parade.

Phi Kappa Kappa is the largest sorority on campus. It was organized in 1928. An active organization, the Phi Kaps sponsor many campus activities, some of which are: Howdy Day, Twilight Tea, the Hawaiian Rush Party, Sock Hop, the Mother's Day Tea, Party for Honorary Members, Bowery Party, Style Show for the student body, party given by pledges for actives and the White Rose Ball spring formal.

Phi Kappa Kappa women are also active in civic affairs. Each year at Easter they give a party for the children at Hillcrest Sanitarium. On campus they helped with the forensic meets and ushered for the Blackfriars' spring production.

Honors are constantly being accorded the women of Phi Kappa Kappa. Two graduating seniors, Judy McCutcheon and Virginia Martin, were elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities during their years at Morris Harvey. Six of the nine members of the 1956 May Court were Phi Kaps and for the second consecutive year they won the May Day Sing. Patty Jo Wall was elected Miss Senior and Patty Hendrickson and Judy McCutcheon were attendants to the Homecoming Queen. Patricia Kelly was elected Daisy Mae, repeating an honor that she received as a freshman.

Lynn Hoffman and Patty Hendrickson sell programs at a basketball game. This project is an annual affair for the Phi Kaps.

Planning for their next meeting are this year's officers, Jerry DeHainaut, vice president; Judy McCutcheon, president; Patty Hendrickson, treasurer; Bobbie Shamblin, secretary.

First row: Joan Ritchie, Janice Hanway, Lois Goodall, Jean Chandler. Second row: Elaine Berry, Violet Aldred, Ruth Chewning, Frances Derrick. Third row:

Nancy Wiseman, Mary Kay Montgomery, Paulina Hudnall, Mikel Smith.

PHI LAMBDA TAU

An Arabian Night was the theme for the annual rush party and some of the Phi Lambs are shown above with prospective pledges.

Helen Vig and Jane Kohlbecker get in the act too as Lois Goodall and Janice Hanway present them with their souvenirs from the party.

Phi Lambda Tau Sorority, which was founded in 1929 at Barboursville, has as its objectives the improvements of the social, intellectual and the moral life of its members.

The Phi Lambs' activities during the year include the annual Candlelight Tea, Sadie Hawkins Day Dance, the Dog Patch Drag, the annual Spring Formal, the Christmas Party and the Arabian Nights rush Party.

The Sorority is represented in F.T.A., W.A.A., Panhellenic Council, Choir, French Club, and the Ushers Club.

The Faculty sponsor for the sorority is Mrs. Vida R. Babcock.

Officers are Joan Ritchie, president; Elaine Berry, Mary K. Montgomery, Nancy Wiseman, Pam Hudnall, Linda Markham and Lois Goodall.

Phi Lambs hold Bowling Party for the pledges. Pledges are Mary Kaye Montgomery and Nancy Wiseman.

Phi Sig officers studying the manual are getting ready for their new pledges. Charles Carpenter, sergeant-at-arms; Dan Harrah, Panhellenic council representative; Sam Putinsky, vice president; Arlie Roberts, secretary. Seated are George King, sponsor; and Bab Evans, president.

Mrs. Ann Williamsan Ballard, wife of Gene Ballard, was crowned Phi Sigma Phi Sweetheart for 1957 at the annual Christmas formal.

The Phi Sigma Phi fraternity was founded October 20, 1929, at Concord State Teachers College and Beta Chapter was formed November 14, 1929 at Barboursville. Their goals are uniting men students, instilling a spirit of Campus fellowship and promoting the interests of the college.

The events sponsored by the organization are the Turkey Hop, the Bunny Hop, Christmas Formal, Spring Formal, Dinner Dance and numerous stag parties for members only.

The Phi Sigma Phi Fraternity boasts the most active alumni association on campus. Upon graduation the members can still keep in active touch with the chapter on campus by associating themselves with this organization.

Boasting the largest membership of all Greek organizations on campus, the Sigma Delta Phi Fraternity is a leader in all phases of college activity.

Their members are represented in all phases of sports—football, basketball, baseball. They have members in Blackfriars, Student Council, Panhellenic Council, Art Guild, Band, Debate Club, Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Kappa Delta, and Future Teachers of America.

The Sigma Delts sponsored six annual events beginning with the first Welcome Dance of the year and continued with their Thanksgiving Dance, the Plymouth Rock Dance, and their Christmas Formal, Spring Dance and their Sweetheart Weekend, which is the only one held on campus. This consists of a full weekend of activities climaxed by the crowning of Sigma Delt Sweetheart.

Each year the fraternity presents the Gary M. Keener Memorial Award to the brother contributing the most to the school and fraternity.

Faculty advisor for the fraternity is Luther V. Koontz.

Sigma Delts enjoy a game of bridge in the Eagloo.

SIGMA IOTA CHI

Mimi Mendel has troubles when her umbrella won't come up. Mimi, Thelma and Carrie are doing a soft-shoe routine for the rushees at the Sigma party.

Noting an important date on the Sigma calendar are the 1957 officers: Mimi Mendel, vice president; Julia Prapps, protectress; Tilly Allender, pledge mistress; Drema Harvey, treasurer; Louise VanNetta, Panhellenic representative; Ellen Maare, Parchment editor. Seated are Harriet Ware, president; and Flora Lee Hanger, secretary.

Beta Nu Chapter of the Sigma Iota Chi Sorority was founded in 1936 and is the oldest national sorority on campus. The purpose of Sigma Iota Chi is to aid in the social growth and character development of its members.

The Sigmas' activities include a Christmas party, the Shamrock Dance, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Alumni luncheon, Little "Sis" party, and the Spring Formal. One of the highlights of the school year is the crowning of "King Shamrock" at the March dance.

Sigma members are very active in almost all campus organizations. They are represented in band, Tempo Club, Wesley Fellowship, Yokefellow, Ushers Club, F.T.A. Art Guild, Majorette Corp, Chi Rho Fellowship, Blackfriars, Alpha Psi Omega and the Philharmonic Choir.

Among the honors received by the women of Sigma Iota Chi are the following: Secretary of Panhellenic Council, Secretary of the Choir, Secretary-treasurer of the Student Council, President of M.E.N.C. and for the second year Mimi Mendel and Flora Lee Hanger were selected to serve as Mammy Yokum and Tobacco Rhody for the annual Sadie Hawkins Day festivities. Flora Lee Hanger was appointed co-editor of the Harveyan for the second consecutive year. Harriet Ware, Mimi Mendel and Flora Lee Hanger were elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for the 1956-57 year.

ZETA KAPPA

George Park, former ZK president, is shown at a joint committee meeting of the Alumni, Student Council and Panhellenic Council to prepare for homecoming.

Zeta Kappa active, Ralph Simpson, discusses plans for classes with some fellow student-teachers. Left to right, Bill Estes, Helen Smith, Garnett Bowyer and Simpson.

Zeta Kappa activities were carried on admirably by its 1956 members in the tradition of the fraternity, the first social fraternity to come to the Morris Harvey campus.

Zeta Kappa members have sponsored many social activities on campus, including the All-Greek Dance, Christmas Party and Spring Formal.

Band, Glee Club, Art Guild, Comet Staff, Wesley Foundation, Ministerial Association, Intramurals and Tempo Club comprise some of the organizations in which ZK members have active. A ZK holds the highest position in the governing body of the Greeks.

"Create, not imitate" is the motto of the Zeta Kappa Fraternity and their pledge program carries out a high sense of purpose undergirded by ideals of ethics and comradeship. A great opportunity lies within this fraternity for service and self development.

Planning their annual All-Greek Dance and the crowning of Miss Greek are the present ZK officers.

ZETA MU EPSILON

Mrs. Grace Martin Taylor, new sponsor for Zeta Mu, joined the Morris Harvey faculty from the Mason College of Music and Fine Arts.

Mrs. Ann Christian who is the president and the only member who returned from last year.

Wyonia Cummings and an unidentified alumna work on the Zeta Mu float for the homecoming parade.

Zeta Mu Epsilon was founded at Stephens College for Women, Columbia, Missouri, in 1921. The sorority has international linkage, having sisters in England, Japan, Korea, and Africa. The objectives of the sorority are to establish a perpetual bond of friendship among its members and to broaden moral, social and intellectual life.

The Mu Chapter, in cooperation with the alumni has adopted a French orphan, Suzanne Pin, whom they are supporting.

Social activities of the sorority have been on the traditional basis, consisting of the Annual Homecoming Luncheon for actives and alumni, the Western Rush Party, Tea, and the National Sorority Birthday Party.

Shown above is Suzanne Pin, a French orphan, who was adopted by Zeta Mu last year.

Studying their pledge manuals for one of the frequent pledge tests are the Zeta Mu pledges, Annie Davis, Peggy H. Bell, Sandra Conklin and Martha Craigo.
